PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Data Analyst with hands-on experience in Python, SQL, Excel, Power BI, and Machine Learning, focused on business analytics, profitability analysis, customer behavior, KPI reporting, and dashboard development. Experienced in working with real-world datasets to support data driven business decision making. Available for immediate joining in the UAE.

PROJECTS

Retail Sales & Profitability Analysis | Python, Power BI

- Analyzed sales and inventory data for a consumer electronics retail business to identify low margin SKUs, dead stock, and discount-driven margin erosion.
- Performed exploratory data analysis to evaluate revenue, profit, and margin trends.
- Generated data driven insights to highlight opportunities for inventory optimization and improved pricing strategies.
- Used Power Query for data cleaning and basic DAX for calculations

Customer Segmentation Analysis | Python

- Segmented customers based on purchasing behavior using RFM analysis to identify high-value, price-sensitive, and low-engagement customer groups.
- Derived data-driven insights to support targeted marketing and retention strategies.

Bank Customer Churn Prediction | Python, Machine Learning, Streamlit

- Performed EDA and data preprocessing including encoding, scaling, and feature selection
- Addressed class imbalance using SMOTE and analyzed its impact on churn prediction
- Trained and evaluated multiple models using precision, recall, and confusion matrix to balance churn detection and false positives.
- Optimized the best model using GridSearchCV and deployed it using Streamlit
